Teaching British Values within the curriculum at Broad Square Primary School

All schools must promote British Values, these are defined as:

Democracy
The rule of law
Individual liberty
Mutual respect
Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

At Broad Square Primary School, our values are at the heart of British Values.

Through our curriculum, assemblies, Jigsaw PSHE programme, involvement with Happy Centred Schools, the weekly use of Picture News and our wealth of enrichment opportunities we:

- Ensure that we give children consistent messages in order for them to become valuable and fully rounded members of society who treat others with respect and tolerance, regardless of background.
- Promote the basic British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance for those of different faiths and beliefs.
- Ensure our young people understand the importance of respect and leave school fully prepared for life in modern Britain.

Our curriculum and values ensure pupils have the opportunity in all subject areas to discuss, debate, reflect on and understand key British Values. Pupils understand how they can contribute to being a British citizen in a modern British school and society by:

- making positive contributions to the school and wider community
(Community);
 - having respect for all and showing responsibility
(Respect)
 - building self-esteem, self-knowledge and self-confidence
(Enjoyment)
 - understanding what is a fair and tolerant community
(Respect)
- distinguishing right from wrong and respecting the civil and criminal law of England.
(Respect, Responsibility)
- encouraging respect for democracy and support for participation in the democratic process, including respect for the basis on which the law is made and applied in England
(Respect)
- making sure we are accepting of diversity and are a stronger community for this
(Excellence, Compassion)

Understanding that everyone has their own set of values which they deem important, despite their country or religion. Our values reflect these (Compassion, Respect)

Understanding respect is key to positive relationships
(Respect)

Being proud, of who and what we are, wherever we are from
(Respect)

Participating within your community
(Community and compassion)

Above all fairness and equality is key to core British Values
(Respect)

Also through our Buddy System, Prefects, School Council processes and Anti-Bullying Ambassadors we;

- Encourage our students to become responsible citizens
- Ensure we accept each other and have our voices heard through school council Elections and representing our classes through school council meetings.
