-Puzzle overview - Being Me in My World	In this Puzzle (unit), the children learn about how they have similarities and differences from their friends and how that is OK. They begin by working on recognising and managing and naming their feelings. The children learn about working with others and why it is good to be kind and use gentle hands. They discuss children's rights, especially linked to the right to learn and the right to play. The children learn what it means to be responsible.	In this Puzzle, children are introduced to their Jigsaw Journals and explore what helps them feel special, safe and calm in their class. They learn what it means to belong and understand their rights and responsibilities as class members. Children think about welcoming others, keeping their classroom safe for learning, and how their views are valued when contributing to the whole-school Learning Charter. They explore feelings linked to rewards and pride, reflect on their choices, and recognise emotions that can arise from consequences. By the end of the Puzzle, children understand their role in creating a positive, respectful and safe school community, with the Learning Charter as the shared outcome.	In this Puzzle, children reflect on their hopes and fears for the year and learn how to recognise feelings of worry and seek help. They explore belonging in their class and school community, developing an understanding of rights and responsibilities and making positive contributions. Across the six Pieces, children discuss rewards and consequences, consider how choices affect themselves and others, and explore what makes a classroom safe and fair. Children then learn how the Learning Charter supports learning and boundaries. By the end of the Puzzle, children understand their role in creating a positive school community, with the whole-school Learning Charter as the shared outcome.	In this Puzzle, children reflect on their worth and achievements, set personal goals, and learn how to make others feel welcome. They explore emotions linked to worries and fears and think about what helps a school feel safe and supportive. Children compare nightmare and dream schools, develop an understanding of rights and responsibilities, and consider how behaviour and choices affect others. They work together to create and follow their Learning Charter, focusing on teamwork, fairness and inclusion. By the end of the Puzzle, children recognise how their actions impact others, consider different viewpoints, and take responsibility for following the whole-school Learning Charter.	In this Puzzle, children explore what it means to be part of a class team, reflecting on inclusion, friendship and how their actions affect others. They learn about roles in school and how to contribute to their community. Across the six Pieces, children explore rights, responsibilities and democracy, including how to share their own thoughts, opinions and ideas. They consider how rewards and consequences influence behaviour and practise empathy. By the end of the Puzzle, children understand how responsible choices and participation benefit their school community, with the Learning Charter as the shared outcome.	In this Puzzle, children look ahead to the year, setting personal goals and reflecting on what they value about their school community. They explore leadership, motivation and how to approach challenges positively. Across the six Pieces, children learn about rights and responsibilities as citizens and develop empathy for people whose lives are different from their own. They consider fairness, privilege and disadvantage, and how choices affect themselves and others. Children examine how rewards and consequences influence behaviour and work together to create and follow their Learning Charter, focusing on cooperation and having a voice. By the end of the Puzzle, children understand how democracy and shared expectations support a positive school community, with the whole-school Learning Charter as the shared outcome.	In this Puzzle, children reflect on the year ahead, identifying goals, worries and fears and exploring how to feel welcome and valued. Across the six Pieces, children explore what it means to be a global citizen, comparing wants and needs, learning about children's rights, and considering how their choices affect people locally and worldwide. Children then explore how rights, responsibilities, rewards and consequences connect to the Learning Charter, working collaboratively to agree shared expectations and safe behaviour. By the end of the Puzzle, children understand how democracy and modelling positive choices support a strong school community, with the whole-school Learning Charter as the shared outcome.

Puzzle Overview - Changing Me	Children are encouraged to think about how they have changed from being a baby and what may change for them in the future. They consolidate the names and functions of some of the main parts of the body and discuss how these have changed. They learn that our bodies change in lots of different ways as we get older. Children understand that change can bring about positive and negative feelings, and that sharing these can help. They also consider the role that memories can have in managing change.	In this Puzzle, children learn about life cycles and the changes that happen as humans and animals grow. They reflect on how their own bodies have changed and develop understanding that everyone grows at different rates. Across the six Pieces, children learn the correct names for private body parts, explore how boys' and girls' bodies can be different, and practise respecting their own bodies and those of others. They also think about feelings linked to change, such as excitement and worry, and learn ways to cope. At the end of the Puzzle, children contribute their flowers of change work to the whole school Tree of Change display, celebrating growth, learning and new beginnings.	In this Puzzle, children explore life cycles in nature and how humans grow from young to old, learning that some changes are outside their control. They reflect on how their own bodies and independence change over time and develop respect for differences in themselves and others. Across the six Pieces, children learn correct names for body parts, understand privacy, and practise being assertive about touch and personal boundaries. They also think about feelings linked to future change, such as excitement and worry, and learn ways to cope. By the end of the Puzzle, children create Leaf Mobiles to celebrate growth and looking ahead.	In this Puzzle, children learn how babies grow and explore the physical changes that happen to bodies as people grow up, including some inside and outside changes linked to puberty. They develop understanding of personal hygiene and why caring for their bodies becomes more important as they grow and change. Across the six Pieces, children reflect on their feelings about change, learn correct vocabulary for body parts, challenge family stereotypes, and consider who they can ask for help if they feel worried. They also think about future transitions and how to cope with them. By the end of the Puzzle, children create Ribbon Mobiles to celebrate growth and looking ahead.	In this Puzzle, children explore identity and what makes them unique while learning about physical and emotional changes linked to puberty, including menstruation. They consider the role of families, trusted adults, and inner circles in providing care and support. Across the six Pieces, children develop strategies for coping with change, managing worries, and accepting things beyond their control. They practise reflecting on personal goals and positive changes they would like to make. By the end of the Puzzle, children use Circles of Change to think about future transitions and celebrate growth and resilience.	In this Puzzle, children explore self-image and body confidence while learning about physical and emotional changes during puberty for girls and boys. They develop understanding of menstruation, male puberty, and how media influences perceptions of appearance and wellbeing. This Puzzle includes one non-statutory sex education lesson where children learn about conception, fertility support, and how babies are made. Across the six Pieces, pupils practise identifying trusted adults and reliable sources of information, alongside discussing responsibilities linked to growing up. By the end of the Puzzle, children reflect on upcoming transitions using Circles of Change and consider how to manage feelings about future changes with confidence and resilience.	In this Puzzle, children explore self-image and self-esteem while learning about physical and emotional changes during puberty. Across the six Pieces, children reflect on identity, adolescent friendships, and the pressures linked to appearance and growing independence. They practise challenging negative self-talk and identifying trusted adults for support, alongside discussing attraction, consent, and respectful relationships. This Puzzle includes a non-statutory sex education lesson where develop understanding of reproduction, pregnancy, and birth. By the end of the Puzzle, children consider the transition to secondary school, using Circles of Change to reflect on worries, hopes, and how to prepare confidently for the year ahead.
